Section 1: TIA Overview

What Is the Teacher Incentive Allotment?

The Teacher Incentive Allotment (TIA) is a Texas state program (House Bill 3, 2019) that allows districts to provide permanent salary increases to teachers designated as Recognized, Exemplary, or Master.

Unlike bonuses, TIA designations are:

- Portable — they follow you to any participating district
- Permanent — as long as you maintain the designation (every 5 years)
- Funded by the state

Designation Levels & Potential Salary Increases

Designation	Approximate Annual Increase
Recognized	$3,000 – $9,000
Exemplary	$6,000 – $18,000
Master	$9,000 – $32,000

Actual amounts vary by district. Rural and high-needs campuses receive higher allotments.

Section 2: The Two Pillars

Pillar 1: Teacher Observation (Qualitative)

Based on T-TESS observation scores:

Designation	Typical T-TESS Requirement
Recognized	Average of "Accomplished" across observed domains
Exemplary	Average of "Accomplished" with some "Distinguished"
Master	Average of "Distinguished" across observed domains

Pillar 2: Student Growth (Quantitative)

Designation	Typical Growth Requirement
Recognized	Above-average (55th+ percentile)
Exemplary	Well above average (60th–70th+)
Master	Top-tier (75th+ percentile)

 You need strong performance in BOTH pillars.

Section 3: Building Your Portfolio (Sample)

Step 1: Know Your District's LDS (August)

- ☐ Obtain your district's TEA-approved Local Designation System document
- ☐ Identify criteria for each designation level
- ☐ Note the observation rubric (T-TESS or alternative)
- ☐ Understand how student growth is measured
- ☐ Identify deadlines for data submission
- ☐ Ask your administrator: "What evidence would be most helpful?"

Step 2: Establish Baseline Data (August–September)

- ☐ Administer pre-assessments for all units/courses
- ☐ Document pre-assessment data in a tracking system
- ☐ Set Student Learning Objectives (SLOs) if required
- ☐ Photograph/scan baseline student work samples
